

CHC43415 CERTIFICATE IV IN LEISURE AND HEALTH

QUALIFICATION OVERVIEW

1. QUALIFICATION SUMMARY

- National code/title:
- This qualification reflects the role of workers participating in the design, implementation and evaluation of leisure, health activities and programs for clients in one or more sector areas. Workers may be in residential facilities and/or in community agencies and day centres, completing specialised tasks and functions in relation to leisure and health. While workers are responsible for their own outputs, work is carried out under direct or indirect supervision within defined organisation guidelines.
- Industry relevance:
- Students will be required to complete and pay for a National Police Clearance prior to enrolment in this course.
- Entry requirements:
- Learners will be expected to read and understand simple legal and medical documents, interact effectively with colleagues and build relationships with elderly people and family members. Some life experience around the elderly or those would be an advantage.
- Recommended skills:

ASSESSMENT

3. ASSESSMENT REQUIREMENTS

Assessment tasks:

- Assessment is generally progressive with multiple assessment tasks to be completed for each unit of competency. Assessment tasks and methods will vary from unit to unit and may include a combination of direct performance observation, oral questioning, workbooks, practical tasks and simulations, interviews, third party reports and other techniques.

Task submission:

- Assessment tasks must be submitted by the due date unless an extension has been granted. Students are entitled to two re-submissions per item following an initially inadequate assessment.

4. RECOGNITION AND CREDIT

RPL application:

- If you believe you are able meet course requirements through workplace and other evidence in your possession, then contact your local college for further information about the RPL process. Note that RPL applications must be made at the time of enrolment after which you will be contacted by one of our assessors to discuss your application.

Credit transfers:

- You may already have acquired some of the units of competency in this qualification from an earlier course or from another Registered Training Organisation, authorised issuing body or authenticated VET transcripts from the Registrar. If so, you can claim credit for these by providing original qualification transcripts or statements of attainment. These will be verified and copied as evidence of current competency. Note that you cannot receive credit for your whole programme of study.

INDUCTION AND SUPPORT

Pre-enrolment:

- By completing pre-enrolment assessment prior to enrolling in this qualification, you will be assisting us to evaluate your suitability for the course and to tailor support services to meet your individual needs. A Student Support Officer will review your pre-enrolment information and, if appropriate, contact you to discuss options to assist you to participate productively in the course.

- Course induction:
- An induction session to be held at the outset of the course comprises an overview of the industry, including relevant legislation, and covers course content, delivery and assessment arrangements and course completion requirements. A general orientation to college facilities, rules and safety procedures is also provided.
 - Orientation to our online learning management system will also be provided by the trainer.
- Individual support:
- Your trainer can provide email and telephone support throughout the course. All enrolled students also have access to a Student Support Officer who can provide advice and assistance or facilitate external support.

CERTIFICATION ARRANGEMENTS

6. AWARDS ISSUANCE
