

CHC43115 CERTIFICATE IV IN DISABILITY

QUALIFICATION OVERVIEW

1. QUALIFICATION SUMMARY

- National code/title:
- CHC43115 Certificate IV in Disability
- Industry relevance:
- This qualification reflects the role of workers in a range of community settings and clients' homes, who provide training and support in a manner that empowers people with disabilities to achieve greater levels of independence, self-reliance, community participation and wellbeing. Workers promote a person-centred approach, work without direct supervision and may be required to supervise and/or coordinate a small team.
- Entry requirements:
- Students will be required to complete and pay for a National Police Clearance prior to enrolment in this course.
- Recommended skills:
- It is recommended that applicants be able to read, write and communicate in English to at least Year 10 standard. Learners will be expected to read and understand simple legal and medical documents, interact effectively with colleagues and build relationships with parents and carers.
- Required materials and Equipment
- Access to computer, laptop or device. Access to the internet.
 - For best performance, you should access Canvas (our eLearning platform) with a computer that supports the most recent browser versions. It is recommended to use a computer five years old or newer with at least 1GB of RAM. For more information on recommended settings, supported browsers and mobile specifications, please visit: <https://community.canvaslms.com/t5/Canvas-Basics-Guide/What-are-the-browser-and-computer-requirements-for-Canvas/ta-p/66>
 - As a duty of care to clients, the influenza vaccination is now mandatory for all students intending to complete practical placement in community care.
 - A fee of $25 for the purchase of an ACE-branded t-shirt applies for this course. This is mandatory for all students undertaking any practical work placement.

ASSESSMENT

3. ASSESSMENT REQUIREMENTS

- Assessment tasks:
- Assessment is generally progressive with multiple assessment tasks to be completed for each unit of competency. Techniques may include direct performance observation, oral questioning, workbooks, practical tasks and simulations, interviews, third party reports and other techniques.
- Task submission:
- Assessment tasks must be submitted by the due date unless an extension has been granted. Students are entitled to two re-submissions per item following an initially inadequate assessment.

4. RECOGNITION AND CREDIT

- RPL application:
- If you believe you are able meet course requirements through workplace and other evidence in your possession, then contact your local college for further information about the RPL process. Note that RPL applications must be made at the time of enrolment after which you will be contacted by one of our assessors to discuss your application.
- Credit transfers:
- You may already have acquired some of the units of competency in this qualification from an earlier course or from another Registered Training Organisation, authorised issuing body or authenticated VET transcripts from the Registrar. If so, you can claim credit for these by providing original qualification transcripts or statements of attainment. These will be verified and copied as evidence of current competency. Note that you cannot receive credit for your whole programme of study.

INDUCTION AND SUPPORT

5. INDUCTION AND SUPPORT

- Pre-enrolment:
- By completing pre-enrolment assessment prior to enrolling in this qualification, you will be assisting us to evaluate your suitability for the course and to tailor support services to meet your individual needs. A Student Support Officer will review your pre-enrolment information and, if appropriate, contact you to discuss options to assist you to participate productively in the course.

CHC43115 CERTIFICATE IV IN DISABILITY

- Course induction:
- An induction session to be held at the outset of the course comprises an overview of the industry, including relevant legislation, and covers course content, delivery and assessment arrangements and course completion requirements. A general orientation to college facilities, rules and safety procedures is also provided.
 - Orientation to our online learning management system will also be provided by the trainer.
- Individual support:
- Your trainer can provide email and telephone support throughout the course. All enrolled students also have access to a Student Support Officer who can provide advice and assistance or facilitate external support.
