

CHC33015 CERTIFICATE III IN INDIVIDUAL SUPPORT (DISABILITY)

QUALIFICATION OVERVIEW

1. QUALIFICATION SUMMARY

- National code/title:
- CHC33015 – Certificate III in Individual Support (Disability)
- Industry relevance:
- This course is from the most current nationally recognised training product available, reflecting the role of workers in the community and/or residential setting who follow an individualised plan to provide person-centred support to people who may require support due to ageing, disability or some other reason. Work involves using discretion and judgement in relation to individual support as well as taking responsibility for own outputs. Workers have a range of factual, technical and procedural knowledge, as well as some theoretical knowledge of the concepts and practices required to provide person-centred support.
- Entry requirements:
- Students will be required to complete and pay for a National Police Clearance and a Working with Children Check (NSW) or Blue Card (QLD) prior to enrolment in this course.
- Recommended skills:
- Learners will be expected to read and understand simple legal and medical documents, interact effectively with colleagues and build relationships with people with a disability and their family members. Some life experience around people with a disability would be an advantage.
- Required materials and Equipment
- Access to computer, laptop or device. Access to the internet.
 - For best performance, you should access Canvas (our eLearning platform) with a computer that supports the most recent browser versions. It is recommended to use a computer five years old or newer with at least 1GB of RAM. For more information on recommended settings, supported browsers and mobile specifications, please visit: <https://community.canvaslms.com/t5/Canvas-Basics-Guide/What-are-the-browser-and-computer-requirements-for-Canvas/ta-p/66>
 - As a duty of care to clients, the influenza vaccination is now mandatory for all students intending to complete practical placement in community care.

4. RECOGNITION AND CREDIT

RPL application:

- If you believe you are able meet course requirements through workplace and other evidence in your possession, then contact your local college for further information about the RPL process. Note that RPL applications must be made at the time of enrolment after which you will be contacted by one of our assessors to discuss your application.

Credit transfers:

- You may already have acquired some of the units of competency in this qualification from an earlier course or from another Registered Training Organisation, authorised issuing body or authenticated VET transcripts from the Registrar. If so, you can claim credit for these by providing original qualification transcripts or statements of attainment. These will be verified and copied as evidence of current competency. Note that you cannot receive credit for your whole programme of study.

INDUCTION AND SUPPORT

5. INDUCTION AND SUPPORT

Pre-enrolment:

- By completing pre-enrolment assessment prior to enrolling in this qualification, you will be assisting us to evaluate your suitability for the course and to tailor support services to meet your individual needs. A Student Support Officer will review your pre-enrolment information and, if appropriate, contact you to discuss options to assist you to participate productively in the course.

Course induction:

- An induction session to be held at the outset of the course comprises an overview of the industry, including relevant legislation, and covers course content, delivery and assessment arrangements and course completion requirements. A general orientation to college facilities, rules and safety procedures is also provided
- Orientation to our online learning management system will also be provided by the trainer.

Individual support:

- Your trainer can provide email and telephone support throughout the course. All enrolled students also have access to a Student Support Officer who can provide advice and assistance or facilitate external support.

DELIVERY

11. DELIVERY ARRANGEMENTS

This course structure has been developed in response to the novel coronavirus pandemic (2020) to ensure learners fulfil their course objectives by completing the components that do not require them to be physically present at a training or workplace location at this time.

ACE Community Colleges has received confirmation from local employers that normal work placement arrangements will resume once the pandemic has passed, and that students enrolled in this programme will be accommodated, enabling all learners to meet mandatory requirements – although students may need to be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 prior to commencing work placement. ACE Community Colleges will continue to consult with industry partners and individual students to ensure that students are able to complete the programme within a reasonable period of time once working arrangements begin to normalise.
